

Psalms 28:01 A Psalm of David.
Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

A close-up photograph of a yellow tulip flower in bloom, positioned on the left side of the frame. The flower's petals are a vibrant yellow with some darker, reddish-brown streaks near the base. It is surrounded by long, green, lance-shaped leaves that are slightly out of focus. The background is a dark, blurred green, creating a sense of depth and highlighting the flower as the main subject.

Psalms 28:02 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

Psalm 28:03 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

Psalms 28:04 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

Psalms 28:05 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

A close-up photograph of several pink cyclamen flowers with variegated green leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The leaves are dark green with prominent white variegation. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the plant and some soil.

Psalms 28:06 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

Psalms 28:07 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped:
therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

Psalms 28:08 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

Psalms 28:09 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.
